

Aid to the Church in Need Lecture: Challenges facing Christian communities caught in extremism and destruction in the Middle East

Tuesday, 9 June, 19:00

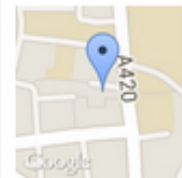

The Newman Society: The Oxford University Catholic Society, Oxford

Like event

Aid to the Church in Need Lecture: Challenges facing Christian communities caught in extremism and destruction in the Middle East

Join us for the Aid to the Church in Need Lecture on the topic "Challenges facing Christian communities caught in extremism and destruction in the Middle East" by Dr. Hratch Tchilingirian of the Oriental Studies Faculty in the Blue Room at the Chaplaincy. Dr. Tchilingirian's lecture will provide an overview and examination of the current status of Christian communities in the Middle East from the perspective both of a sociologist and of someone with deep personal experience of the region. He will discuss not only the challenges facing those communities but also their strategies for survival.

Venue

The Newman Society: The Oxford University Catholic Society
University Catholic Chaplaincy

Share

Facebook page