10th -12th February 1995

This Armenian Weekend will be hosted by the writer,
NOURITZA MATOSSIAN
the Hon. Cultural Attache of the Armenian Embassy.

'BEER, YOGHOURT AND 'PASTOURMA'
are among the inventions of the ancient tradition of Armenian cooking.' A demonstration of this will be held during this weekend.

TALKS ON THE MEDIAEVAL HISTORY OF ARMENIA

and its connections with the major royal families of Europe,
the golden age of Armenian architecture and illuminated manuscripts will be some of the topics presented, with slide shows and talks by a variety of speakers including the Somerset Maugham prize-winner, PHILLIP MARSDEN.

The fabulous and epoch films,
"COLOUR OF POMEGRANATES" &
"FORTRESS OF SURAM", by the Armenian film director, SERGE PARADJANOV, will be shown.
There will also be an exhibition of contemporary Armenian art and textiles.

ON SATURDAY EVENING THERE WILL BE AN ARMENIAN BANQUET

Special dishes connected with religious feasts, will be served in a traditional style Armenian Banquet accompanied by live musicians, dancers and story-tellers !
